CHAPTER-IV
Assessment and Recovery

36. Recovery of Duty.—

(1) The duty of excise imposed under section 3 on minerals, shall when such minerals are dispatched by rail from mines, be collected by the railway administration concerned by means of surcharge on freight, and such duty of excise shall be recovered;

- a. from the consigner, if the freight charges are pre-paid at the forwarding station;
- b. from the consignee, if the freight charges are collected at the destination of the consignment; and
- c. from the party paying the freight, if the consignment is booked on the "weight only" system.

(2) Such duty shall when such minerals are dispatched from any mine otherwise than by rail, be recovered from the owner and collected in the manner as provided hereinafter in this Chapter.

2[(3) Where the collection of excise duty is leased out through public auction, the same shall be recovered from the carrier of such minerals at the collection posts maintained by the lessee for the purpose notified by the Commissioner.]

3[36A. Leasing out collection of Duty: (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, the Commissioner may with the prior approval of the Government, lease out by public auction, for a period not exceeding one year, the collection of duty on such terms and conditions not inconsistent with the provision of this Chapter, as may be specified by the Government in this behalf;]

4[Provided that if leasing out of collection of duty by public auction is delayed due to certain reasons, Government may extend the period of previous lease up to six months on payment of proportionate bid money in advance for the extended period if ex-lessee so desires.]

2) The acceptance of any bid at an auction conducted under sub-rule (1) shall be subject to confirmation by the Government.

(3) The Commissioner shall, within seven days of the date of auction, submit the bid accepted at the auction to the Government for its confirmation.

(4) The Government shall, within thirty days of the submission of the bid under sub-rule (3), confirm the bid or withhold its confirmation but if no order is passed within the aforesaid period, the bid shall be deemed to have been confirmed.

(5) Where confirmation to the bid is withheld, the lease shall, subject to any direction that may be given by Government in this behalf, be again put to auction and the same procedure shall apply to such re-auction.

(6) (i) ¹[The earnest money deposited by the bidders may be refunded after the auction, except to the top three bidders (highest, 2nd highest and 3rd highest) whose earnest money shall be refunded only after rejection of the bid by the competent authority or confirmation by Government; and

(ii) The persons whose bid has been accepted at the auction or re-auction, as the case may be, shall forthwith deposit with the Commissioner 10% of the amount of his bid as security for the performance of his obligation for the collection of duty and payment of lease money failing which the earnest money deposited by the highest bidder shall stand forfeited and offers by the next two highest bidders (2nd highest and 3rd highest) may be treated as the highest bids, subject to the condition that the next highest bid is not less than ten percent of the highest bid in series respectively].

(7) The security deposit shall forthwith be refunded to the persons making it if the Government does not confirm his bid. In other cases, the deposit shall be refunded to him after the period for which the collection of duty is leased to him is over and he has paid up all the dues and has duly performed all his obligations with regard to the collection of duty.

(8) In addition to the security deposit referred to in sub-rule (6), the person whose bid has been accepted and confirmed by the Government (hereinafter referred to as the "lessee") shall, within seven days of the confirmation, deposit a sum equal to ²[25% of the amount of his bid, and the balance shall be paid by him in ten equal monthly installments in advance by first of the month for which the installment is due].

Provided that nothing in this sub-rule preclude the "lessee" from payments of the balance in lump sum.

(9) If the lessee fails to pay security deposit or any installment within the time specified under sub-rule-8 or commits breach of any of the provisions of these rules or any term or condition of the agreement which may be entered into by him with regard to the lease for the collection of duty, the Commissioner may without prejudice to any other action which may be entitled to take against the lessee under the law or these rules, forfeit his security deposit and forthwith cancel his lease.

(10) Where the collection of duty is leased out under this Chapter:-

a. The lessee shall maintain an account of the receipts of the duty in the form prescribed by the Commissioner and such accounts shall, at all reasonable times, be open to inspection by the Commissioner or any officer authorized by him in this behalf;

b. The lessee and every person employed by him as his agent for collection of duty shall be deemed to be the person appointed to collect the duty under these rules; and

3. Rule 36A added, KPK Govt. Noti. No.SOL(IND)1-23/2006, dated 12th April, 2006.

4. Proviso in rule 36A sub-rule (I) added, KPK Govt. Noti. No.SO-Admn(M&M)1-23/Vol-VI, dated 25th May, 2011.

c. The lessee shall, subject to the control and direction of the Commissioner, shall exercise all powers and be subject to all responsibilities attaching to persons appointed to collect the duty under these rules.

1[(11) In case the occupier of specified minerals crosses the collection posts installed by the lessee without payment of excise duty, the lessee may recover the excise duty as per loaded weight with fine amounting to five times of the duty to be paid to him:

Provided that half of the recovered amount shall be deposited by the lessee to the Commissioner under the prescribed head of account.

(12) If any occupier of specified minerals refuses to pay excise duty to the lessee, he shall, in addition to payment of excise duty, be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to one year but shall not be less than three months, or with fine which shall not be less than twenty thousand rupees and not more than thirty thousand rupees or with both:

Provided that the offence shall be cognizable and non-billable and provisions of Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, shall mutatis mutandis apply while proceeding against the occupier.]

2[36B. Appeal: (1) If a lessee is aggrieved by an order of the Commissioner passed under these rules, he may within thirty days of the communication of the impugned order prefer an appeal to Government.

(2) The decision of the Government on such appeal shall be final.]

37. Maintenance of Register of Dispatches and Submission of Returns.—

(1) Every owner shall maintain in Form "D" a register of dispatches of all minerals dispatched otherwise than by rail and shall record therein production during the month and the date-wise dispatches made there from, separately and Consecutively. At the close of each month the entries made against each date in the register shall be totaled and the total tonnage dispatched during the month shall be entered in the register alongwith the closing balance. The amount of duty of excise payable on the total tonnage dispatched at the prescribed rate shall be worked out and recorded in the register itself.

Explanation: In calculating the total tonnage dispatched, a quantity of less than half a ton shall be ignored and a quantity of half tone or more shall be reckoned as one ton.

(2) Every owner shall submit to the Commissioner in duplicate a return in Form "D" for each month in accordance with the entries made in the register maintained under sub-rule (1) duly signed by such owner or any person authorized by him in this behalf.

(3) A return so submitted shall reach the Commissioner not later than the last day of the month following the month to which the return pertains.

(4) Where no mineral is dispatched in any month the owner shall submit to the commissioner within the time specified in sub-rule (3) a nil return in duplicate for that month accompanied by a certificate duty signed by such owner to the effect that no mineral was dispatched during that month.

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in this rule, if the Commissioner is satisfied with respect to an owner that no mineral was dispatched by him during the preceding twelve months, he may by permit in writing allow him to submit in place of a monthly return a consolidated return in Form "D" for such period not exceeding one year as may be specified in the permit.

38. Provisional Assessment and payment of Excise Duty.—

The amount of duty of excise payable for any month and recorded in the register maintained under rule 37 shall be deemed to be a provisional assessment of the duty and shall be subject to a final assessment under rule 42.

39. Manner of Payment of Duty.—

(1) The owner shall pay a duty of excise assessed under rule 38 into the nearest Treasury not later than the last date of the month following the month for which the duty of excise is payable.

1[(2) The payment into the Treasury shall be made by means of a challan, the remittance being shown as creditable to the Government under the prescribed head of account for the receipt under the Excise Duty on Minerals (Labour Welfare) Act, 1967.]

(3) The challan shall be filled in duplicate, a copy of which shall be retained by the Treasury and the other shall be returned to the depositor who will transmit it to the Commissioner as proof of payment alongwith monthly return prescribed in sub-rule (2) of rule 37 after entering the number, date and amount shown in the Treasury receipt in both the copies of the return.

40. Delay in submission of Return or Submission of Incorrect Returns.—

If the return for any month does not reach the Commissioner with in the time prescribed by rule 37 or incorrect return is submitted to him, the owner shall be punished with a fine which may extend to two thousand rupees.

41. Late Returns and Revision of Returns.—

If the owner has not furnished the return within the prescribed date or having furnished it discovers any omission or wrong statement therein, he may furnish return or a revised return, as the case may be, at any time before the order of final assessment is passed.

1. New subrules (11) and (12) added in rule 36A, KPK Govt. Noti. No.SOL(IND)1-23/2008, dated 2nd July, 2008.

2. New rule 36B KPK Govt. Noti. No.Admn(M&M) 1-23/09 Vol-V, dated 23rd September, 2010.

1. Subs. for the original subrule (2), NWFP Government Notification No.SOL/1-23/89, dated 12th December,1989.

42. Final Assessment of Excise Duty.—

(1) If the Commissioner is satisfied that the return submitted by any owner is correct and complete, he shall confirm the provisional assessment referred to in rule 38 as final and send an intimation to that effect to the owner in Form "E" within three months from the date of receipt of the return.

(2) (a) If the Commissioner is not so satisfied, he may either depute an officer for the purpose of verification of the correctness and completeness of the return with reference to the books and accounts and other relevant records of the mine at its premises, or issue a notice in Form "F-1" on the owner requiring him to attend either personally or through a duly authorized representatives on the date and at the time and place to be specified in the notice. The Officer deputed by the Commissioner shall be afforded all necessary facilities at the premises of the mine for the purpose of verification as aforesaid.

(b) After verification of the return or after hearing such evidence as the owner may produce in compliance with the notice issued under clause (a) and such evidence as the Commissioner may require on specified points the Commissioner shall as soon as possible, assess the amount of duty due from the owner and such assessment shall be final.

(c) If the Commissioner is satisfied that the return submitted by the owner is correct and complete, he shall confirm the provisional assessment as final. If, on the other hand, under the final assessment a further sum is due from the owner, the Commissioner shall issue on the owner a Demand Notice in Form "H" requiring the payment of balance due within the time prescribed therein.

(d) If any owner having furnished a return for a month fails to comply with any of the terms of the notice that may be issued on him under clause (a), the Commissioner shall assess the amount of the duty from him, which, in his judgment, is just and proper and such assessment shall be final.

(3) If any owner does not furnish a return in Form "D" for any month by the prescribed date in the manner laid down in rule 37 and 39, the Commissioner shall after giving the owner a reasonable opportunity of being heard by issue of a notice in Form "F-2" assess the amount of duty due from him which in his opinion is just and proper, and the owner shall also be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.

(4) If, upon information which has come into his possession the Commissioner is satisfied that an owner has actually dispatched during a month minerals otherwise than by rail and has thereby become liable to pay duty under section 3, but has failed to furnish a return in respect of that month and to pay the amount of provisional assessment on that basis by the last day of the month following the month in which he has dispatched the minerals, the Commissioner shall, after giving the owner a reasonable opportunity of explaining the reasons for the failure by the issue of a notice in Form "F-3" assess the amount of duty due from him, which, in his opinion, is just and proper in respect of that month and the owner shall also be punishable with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.

(5) The Commissioner shall fix a date ordinarily not earlier than thirty days from the date of issue of a notice in Form "F-1" or Form "F-3" for producing such accounts and documents, as he may require and for considering any objection which the owner may wish to offer.

(6) After considering any objection made by the owner and any evidence produced in support thereof, the Commissioner shall assess the amount of the duty to be paid by the owner and shall briefly record his findings and pass his final assessment order in Form "G"

(7) The amount of duty thus assessed, the date by which the amount so assessed is to be deposited (which shall not ordinarily be earlier than thirty days from the date of issue of Demand Notice) and any other particular connected therewith shall be specified in the Demand Notice in Form "H".

(8) The mode of payment into the Treasury of the amount specified in the demand Notice in Form "H" shall be the same as laid down in rule 30; provided that the copy of the treasury challan intended for transmission to the Commissioner shall be forwarded to him with a covering letter quoting reference to the Demand Notice.

43. Recovery of Duty on Minerals which have Escaped Assessment.—

If --

(a) the Commissioner has reason to believe that by reason of the concealment by the owner of the particulars of dispatches of minerals from any mine, such dispatches have escaped excise duty; or

(b) notwithstanding there has been no such concealment of particulars as is mentioned in clause (a) on the part of the owner, the Commissioner has in consequence of information in his possession reasons to believe that any dispatches of minerals from a mine have escaped excise duty.

The Commissioner may, in cases falling under clause (a) at any time within four years and in cases falling under clause (b) at any time within two years of the end of the month, the return in respect of which should have included such dispatches of minerals which have escaped assessment assess the excise duty payable thereon and all the provisions of these rules shall apply to the excise duty so assessed as if assessment were included in the final assessment of excise duty under rule 42.

Provided that the Commissioner before exercising the powers conferred upon him, under that rule shall give the owner a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

44. Recovery of Unpaid Excise Duty and Penalty.—

(1) Any amount of duty of excise which remains unpaid after the date specified the Demand Notice and any amount of penalty which is imposed on an owner for violation of any of the provision to these rules shall be recovered as arrear of land revenue and shall be credited, to the Government in the manner specified in rule 39.

(2) The Commissioner shall (in order to recover the unpaid amount of cess and also the penalty) apply to the collector of the District in which the mine is situated or the District where the office of the firm is situated for transacting business, for the recovery of the amount remaining unpaid.

(3) The contractor shall send a report to the Commissioner, by the 10th of each month showing the amount recovered by him during the preceding month.

45. Review.—

(1) Within thirty days from the date of issue of Demand Notice in Form “H” any owner may submit a petition to the Commissioner asking for a review of such assessment; provided that no such petition shall be entertained unless the Commissioner is satisfied that the amount assessed has been paid by the owner into a treasury as required under rule 42.

(2) Every petition for review shall be accompanied by a memorandum setting forth clearly the principal grounds of objection against the assessment made together with a copy of the Treasury challan showing that the amount assessed has been paid to the Government and a certified copy of the assessment order.

(3) The Commissioner shall, after verifying the fact of assessment from the record of his office, satisfy himself as to the correctness of the grounds in the petition, and if he finds that a prima facie error of judgment has been made, shall issue an order either reducing or annulling the assessment.

(4) If, on the other hand, the records in his office reveal that assessment has made correctly, the Commissioner shall after giving the petitioner an opportunity of being heard, issue an order confirming the assessment. The order of the Commissioner shall be final.

(5) The Commissioner shall record his decision in writing.

(6) The petitioner shall be entitled to a copy of the Commissioner orders on the petition for review free of cost and it shall be furnished to him as soon as possible after the order are passed.

(7) So much of the duty originally assessed upon and paid by the owner as is found not to be due from him as a result of review under sub-rule (1) shall be refunded to the owner or adjusted in the account of the owner, as the Commissioner may deem fit, on the basis of the orders on the petition for review.

(8) Any refund under sub-rule (7) shall be made in cash by drawing the amount from the treasury on an ordinary contingent bill on which shall be specified the review case, number, date of the review order and the number, date and the amount of treasury challan.

46. Records of Collection.—

(1) For the proper account of the duty collected under these rules, the Commissioner shall maintain records to show the following particulars alongwith any other particulars required;

- a. Assessment and collection of duty.
- b. Particulars of petitions and order thereon.
- c. Refunds.

(2) All the paper relating to the assessment of duty in respect of a mine shall be kept together and shall form part of assessment record.

47. Remittance of Excise Duty.—

(1) The total amount of excise duty collected by the railway administration less;

- a. authorized refunds;
- b. a deduction of such percentage as ghee government may fix towards the cost of collection shall be remitted quarterly to the State Bank of Pakistan at Peshawar, under advise to the 1[Accountant General, North-West Frontier Province].

(2) An amount equivalent to the amount of excise duty credited to the Provincial Revenues under sub-rule (1) shall be transferred to the Fund in a special account under the 2[Government, North-West Frontier Province].

48. Refund and Recoveries.—

(1) When the amount of the excise duty has not been collected either wholly or in part, or where the amount collected is in excess of the amount due, the railway administration shall deal with the under charge or over-charged, as the case may be, on the same principles as apply to under-charges and over-charges, in regard to railway freight charges.

(2) When it is proved to the satisfaction of the Government or any person authorized in this behalf by the Government that any mineral on which the duty of excise under section 3 had previously been collected, Government or the person authorized in this behalf by the Government may order refund of an amount equal to the duty collected on such minerals to the persons from whom such duty was collected.

CHAPTER-V

Dispensary Services

49. Standard.—

(1) The standard of dispensary services to be provided by the owners for the purposes of sub-section (2) of section 5 shall be such as laid down in Appendix-I.

1. In Rule 47, Sub-rule (1) (b) subs. for “Accountant General, West Pakistan, Lahore” ,NWFP Govt. Notification No.SOL/1-25/89, dated 12th December,1989.

2. In Rule 47, Sub-rule (2) subs. for “West Pakistan Government” ibid.

(2) The prescription of standards, so far as medical care is concerned, has been made on the basis of working population. The minimum staff requirements for a dispensary are given in Appendix-I, provided however that in the case of any dispensary which was in existence on the date of coming into force of these rules, the Commissioner may, in his discretion waive the general minimum requirements if he is satisfied that such dispensary is being efficiently run and serves the purpose for which it exists.

50. Inspection.—

The dispensary services maintained by the owner shall be inspected at intervals not exceeding one year by such Medical Officer as may be appointed by the Chairman for the purpose. The Medical Officer shall, if the dispensary conforms to the standard laid down, issue a certificate in Form "I" which shall be valid for a period of one year from the date of issue.

51. Submission of Periodical Returns.—

Each owner whose mine is served by the dispensary shall submit to the Commissioner;

(i) in January and July of each year, a statement showing the total amount of minerals dispatched during the preceding six months from his mines;

(ii) in January of each year, certified statement of the expenditure incurred on the dispensary during the preceding twelve months; and

(iii) in January of each year, a certified statement of number of persons employed in the mines and treated in the dispensary showing the nature of disease treated during the preceding twelve months.

52. Dispensary Services by the Government.—

(1) The Government may establish hospitals at suitable places in the mining areas in which 2000 persons or more are employed daily in the mines within a radius of twenty five miles from it, if no other hospital of the Health Department or Local Body of the standard laid down in Appendix-I already exists. Such hospitals shall provide facilities for indoor treatment for not less than five patients and shall be maintained under the supervisions of the qualified medical graduate.

(2) The Government may establish Medical Centres at suitable places in the mining areas in which less than 2000 persons are employed in mines within a radius of fifteen miles and where there is no hospital for the exclusive use of mine worker. Such Medical Centres shall be maintained, under the supervision of a qualified Medical Officer.

53. Supervision.—

(1) The [Sub-Committee] constituted under sub-rule (1) of rule 24 shall be consulted from time to time but not less than four times in a year, as to the management and working of the hospital and medical centre set up by the Government.

(2) The Commissioner object to the approval of the Miners Welfare Board, may make bye-laws consistent with the Act for all or any of the following purposes, namely;

CHAPTER-IV

Grants

55. Conditions of Grants.—

(1) In each case in which a grant is made by the Government from the Fund to a local authority or the owner, in aid of any scheme approved by the Government for any purpose for which the fund may be utilized, the Government shall impose such conditions as it may consider necessary for ensuring;

- a. that the work for which the grant is made is duly and promptly executed and the money utilized for the purpose for which it is granted;
- b. that the date on which the grant is calculated are in accordance with facts;
- c. that any particulars which the Government may from time to time require in the proper discharge of its responsibilities are duly and promptly supplied;
- d. that all necessary facilities are afforded for any inspection by persons duly authorized by the Government for the purpose of clause (a) or for the collection of any information; and
- e. that proper accounts of the money granted are kept and are submitted to audit by such persons as the Government may authorize in this behalf.

(2) Before making a grant from the Fund to a local authority or the owner, Government shall require such local authority or owner to execute a bond for the fulfillment of the conditions imposed by Government under sub-rule (1).

(3) It shall be a condition of every bond executed under sub-rule (2) that in the event of the local authority, or the owner violating any condition imposed under sub-rule (1), such local authority or the owner shall be liable to pay to the Government such sum or sums, as may be specified in the bond, as may be directed by the Government with due regard to the circumstances of each case. Such sum shall, in the case of an owner, be recovered from him as arrear of land revenue through a Recovery Memo to be sent to the Collector having jurisdiction.

CHAPTER VII

Miscellaneous

56. Maintenance of Account.—

(1) The amount of cess collection under section 3 shall be initially credited to the prescribed head of account for 1[receipts of excise duty under the Excise Duty on Minerals (Labour Welfare) Act, 1967, and then transferred monthly in the prescribed proportion to the General Welfare Account or Housing Account of the Fund in the public account of the Government for expenditure on mining industry.

(2) Any grant-in-aid and miscellaneous receipts under the General Welfare Account shall be initially credited to the prescribed head of account for receipts under the Excise Duty on Minerals (Labour Welfare) Act, 1967 and subsequently transferred to the General Welfare Account of the Fund in the manner prescribed in sub-rule (1).

(3) The receipt of rent from the housing accommodation constructed out of the Housing Account of the Fund as well as other receipts to the Housing Accounts, and the expenditure incurred by the Housing Board from the Housing Account of the Fund shall be credited or debited direct to the Housing Account of the Fund.

(4) The expenditure from the General Account of the Fund as well as proportionate share of the expenditure on the staff debitable to the Housing Account of the Fund under rule 29 shall be debited in the first instance to prescribed expenditure head connected with the administration of the Excise Duty on Minerals (Labour Welfare) Act, 1967 under the distinct detail heads. The entire expenditure will automatically be recovered from the Mines Labour Welfare Fund.

57. Statement of Account.—

The account of the Fund shall be maintained and audited in the same way as any other Fund administered by the Government.

58. Statistics and Other Information to be submitted.—

(1) The owner shall furnish such statistics or other information as any other Fund administered by the Government.

(2) Any owner, who without reasonable excuse fails to furnish the statistics or other information required under sub-rule (1) by the Government or the authorized person, or furnishes statistics, or other information containing a statement, entry or detail which is not to the best of his knowledge or belief to be true, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.
